

Character Descriptions

ANNIE

Female; appears to be 11 years old. She is a tough streetwise kid who is vulnerable when she thinks she might lose what has become most important to her: a newfound “family” who loves her. Throughout the show she exhibits independent, needy, maternal, and hopeful qualities. Although she is at times aggressive or crafty, there is no doubt that she is a friendly and caring child. The part requires an actress who can act motherly, independent, overwhelmed and hopeful. She should be strong vocally and musically and be able to light up the stage in Tomorrow. Vocally, she needs to be a “belter” with a solo-quality voice and a vocal range of alto to mezzo soprano. Annie has about 140 lines and sings in 11 numbers. It is the intent of the production team to honor the spirit of the show as originally envisioned by presenting Annie as a redhead – the young person selected to portray the character may be required to color her hair to conform with the vision of the production team which may also include a perm or hair treatments and/or use of a wig. Any expenses required to modify the young person’s hair will be reimbursed.

OLIVER WARBUCKS

Male; appears to be 40+ years old. He is a powerful, self-assured billionaire who always has his mind on business. While sometime gruff and abrupt he has a kind heart. At first, he is awkwardly affectionate toward Annie, but he soon finds himself completely charmed by her. Vocally, he needs to be a strong baritone or second tenor with a solo-quality voice. Warbucks has over 100 lines and sings in 7 numbers. Oliver Warbucks is bald and clean shaven – for authenticity, the person chosen to portray the character will be required to shave his head and no facial hair will be allowed.

MISS HANNIGAN

Female; appears to be in her 40s (or older) with some mileage. She is the orphanage matron. Her distaste for her job and the children is obvious in every move she makes and every line she delivers. She is predictable and funny, in her ridiculous, cruel ways. Looking for an actress who can act with her whole body and a very good sense of comedic timing. Vocally, she is a strong alto with a solo-quality voice. Hannigan has over 100 lines and sings in 4 numbers.

GRACE FARRELL

Female; appears to be in her 30s. She is the loyal private secretary to Oliver Warbucks. Grace is mature, calm, and classy. She is businesslike when dealing with Miss Hannigan, yet maternal toward Annie. Vocally, she is an alto to mezzo soprano with a solo-quality voice. Grace has over 100 lines and sings in 5 numbers.

ROOSTER HANNIGAN

Male; appears to be mid-30s (or older). Miss Hannigan's despicable brother. Rooster is flashy and self-assured. His “moves” are as smooth as a gambler’s: sly, and deceiving. The actor playing this role should bring a sense of fun to the character and have a good sense of comic timing. Vocally, he needs to be a strong baritone or second tenor with a solo-quality voice. Rooster has just over 50 lines and sings in Easy Street.

Audition Song: Easy Street

LILY ST. REGIS

Female; appears to be similar in age to Rooster. Lily is Rooster’s airhead girlfriend. She is always distracted, although she manages to pick up on any conversation involving money. Like Rooster, the actress playing this role should bring a sense of fun to the character and have a good sense of comic timing. Vocally, she is a soprano. Lily has just over 30 lines and sings in Easy Street.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

Male; Appears to be early 50s and can be made to resemble the US President. This person will be performing in a wheelchair. Vocally, he is a baritone or bass. FDR has over 50 lines and sings in Cabinet Tomorrow and New Deal for Christmas.

NOTE FOR ALL CAST MEMBERS: It is the intent of the production team to use a real dog for the part of Sandy. This cast member will be in regular attendance at rehearsals to get used to being around the group, however, interaction with this cast member will be limited to only the handler/trainer and those individuals that will actually be on stage with Sandy – this will keep the dog safe and secure and ensure success for those scenes that Sandy is a part of and will help the group to get used to having the cast member around. Those with potential allergies related to dogs and/or pet dander need to be aware of this and take proper steps to maintain their health and wellbeing.
